Guidelines for Authors

1. Article length:
 - a. Full length articles – Maximum 3 Pages (standard word document size).
 - b. Brief Articles – Maximum 1 Page (excluding graphics)
 - c. Reviews – Maximum 3 Pages
 - d. Font: 10 pt. Arial.
 - e. Kindly do NOT restrict yourself to the word limit in case you find it difficult to express yourself.
2. Manuscripts can deal with theory, practical applications or new research. Since NERD is a magazine of the students, by the students and for everyone, please write your article in such a way that it can be appreciated by non-experts (i.e. say UG student from a different department). Of course, you may include technical details, though equations should be kept to a minimum. Also, we request you to explain such technical details in relation to your overall project in non-technical terms.
3. Please only list your sources (for technical details/information as well as images) at the end of your manuscript. There should not be any embedded reference numbers. If you need to cite authors for key points or quotes, please state them in the text and give the full reference at the end of the paper. Also, we request you not to include more than 10 references.
4. The first page should have the title of the article, your name, address, e-mail and telephone number. Pages should be numbered consecutively. Manuscripts should be a word.doc in single column, double-spaced, and preferably in the Times New Roman font.
5. At the end of each article, we have an ‘About the author’ section. Please provide a brief introduction and contact (e-mail and Ph. No.) for the author. There is no restriction on the number of authors writing an article. There can be one or several co-authors.
6. Submission of figures and other illustrations
 - a. Graphics files: Submit each figure as an individual file and name each file as it relates to the manuscript (for example, fig1.eps, fig2.jpg, photo1.tif, etc.). Please avoid using presentation packages (such as Harvard Graphics, PowerPoint) and high-end CAD packages. Please do not submit low resolution images.

- b. Screen-capture images should be submitted in bitmapped format (TIFF or PCX). Before the image is captured, set the screen resolution as high as possible (a minimum of 300 dpi) and make the image as large as possible.
- c. Photographs taken with a digital camera should be submitted in a TIFF or EPS format. Photographs taken with a traditional camera should be submitted as high-quality color prints.

Kindly e-mail your articles at nerd@iitk.ac.in. For any further information regarding the submissions, kindly contact our coordinators.
